Foreword

Our days as seniors, although numbered, are filled with the activities and excitement which will never again be ours. After graduation our paths will split with each going his own separate way, perhaps never meeting again. In future years we hope the '62 EAGLE will enable you to recall the many thousands of memories that will set aside your high school years as the most carefree, most happy days of your life.

The National Merit and Scholarship Qualifying Test and the National Educational Development Test will be given on the morning of March 10.

These tests will be given nationwide to reveal the strength and weaknesses of our 9, 10 and 11 grades in such areas as: Language usage, math usage, social studies reading, word usage and natural science reading.

This will give Miss Barnes Mr. Hutchison an opportunity to discuss with the parents the offerings of the Senior High School. The merits of each of the courses (Academic, Business Education, Industrial Arts, Homemaking, General Courses) will be discussed. Also, they will discuss the nature of tests recently taken by your children; and, in general, try to answer questions that may have in mind concerning the next three years of your child's educational opportunities.

We think it's important to —after all, in these next years your children will be preparing for their future educational lives.

Flyers will be sent home to your children. You should read these and indicate your presence of which evening would be most convenient for you.

A selection of prize-winning photographs from the 15th annual Kodak High School Contest goes on display at Chichester High School from Feb. 16 to Feb. 16. The students are invited to view them in the library.

The purpose of the contest is to encourage creative competition among young people and to give them a means of artistic expression through the exercises of photographic skill. It is open to high school students regardless of any public, parochial or private school (Grades 9 through 12) in the United States or possessions. Awards totaling $1,000 with top prizes in each of the two contest divisions — Junior Division for grades 9 and 10. The contest is "open" with no restriction on subject matter or grade.

Entries for the next competition should be accepted between Feb. 1 and March 31. Chi students should contact Miss Barnes, school librarian.

The annual Band Christmas party sponsored by the Band Association will be on Saturday, Dec. 16, at 8 p.m., in the high auditorium. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria. Each band member is asked to bring one guest. Those who attend may expect a gift from Santa Claus.

Mr. Herbert P. Lauterbach, assistant executive secretary of the Pennsylvania State Educational Association will speak to the faculty on Dec. 18, at 4:15 p.m. in the library. He will speak on the Merits of the PSEA and Local Education Organization Membership. Elementary teachers are also invited.

Editor-in-Chief

Dear Graduate,

Your graduation from Chichester Junior-Senior High School in 1962 gives you the distinction of being a member of the last class to graduate from the present building opened in 1953. Future graduates will emanate from the new Chichester Senior High School to be opened in 1962-63.

We hope you can look back on your Chichester school days as memorable ones to encourage you along the path of success.

One gains little satisfaction in doing things that hold no difficulties. The test of courage is realized when you challenge the tough tasks. These bring a keen sense of worth and power. Failures will test your courage and problems prove your might. Until you conquer loss and overcome defeat, you cannot fully understand why success is sweet.

Be thankful for disappointments and for battles lost, and for mistakes that seem to charge an overwhelming cost.

Be glad for all that life has brought because then you know that you must brave adversities if you would greater grow.

Congratulations,

Edgar E. Richards

Dear Seniors:

A few short years ago you began your high school work. Now this assignment has been completed. You have witnessed many changes. There has been sputnik and astronaut as well as a horde of larger and more devastating weapons of destruction.

You must face the challenge of improving this fast moving civilization. You must compete in this world of constant change.

It is my earnest hope that your high school education has developed a sound foundation for your contribution to our society.

Best wishes always,

Dedication

For the opportunity it offers us to collectively express our admiration and affection, we the graduating class are happy to dedicate our 1962 yearbook to Miss Geneva Dunn teacher, par excellence, in the physical education department.

Miss Dunn, we shall always value your acquaintance and cherish the friendship that has grown ineluctably through the years.

We had common beginnings at Chichester, you as a teacher and we as awkward, uncertain seventh-graders. And now looking back from our vantage point as seniors, we are able to confirm and appreciate the sincerity and good fellowship that characterized your association with us. Again, Miss Dunn, we thank you.

In Appreciation

Since we started our high school career, there have been a million and one things to do: dances, class trip, proms, and finally graduation. Thank goodness we could fall back on our sponsors, Miss Barnett and Mr. Dougherty. They have given extensively of their time, energy, and patience to help and encourage us. We shall be forever indebted to them.

Guidance Department

Under the capable guidance of Miss Barnett and Mr. Hutchison we have learned to make decisions that will make a definite mark on our future. Whenever we are faced with a problem, they are there to help and understand us. We wish to thank Miss Barnett and Mr. Hutchison for their contributions to our attaining maturity.

Medical Staff

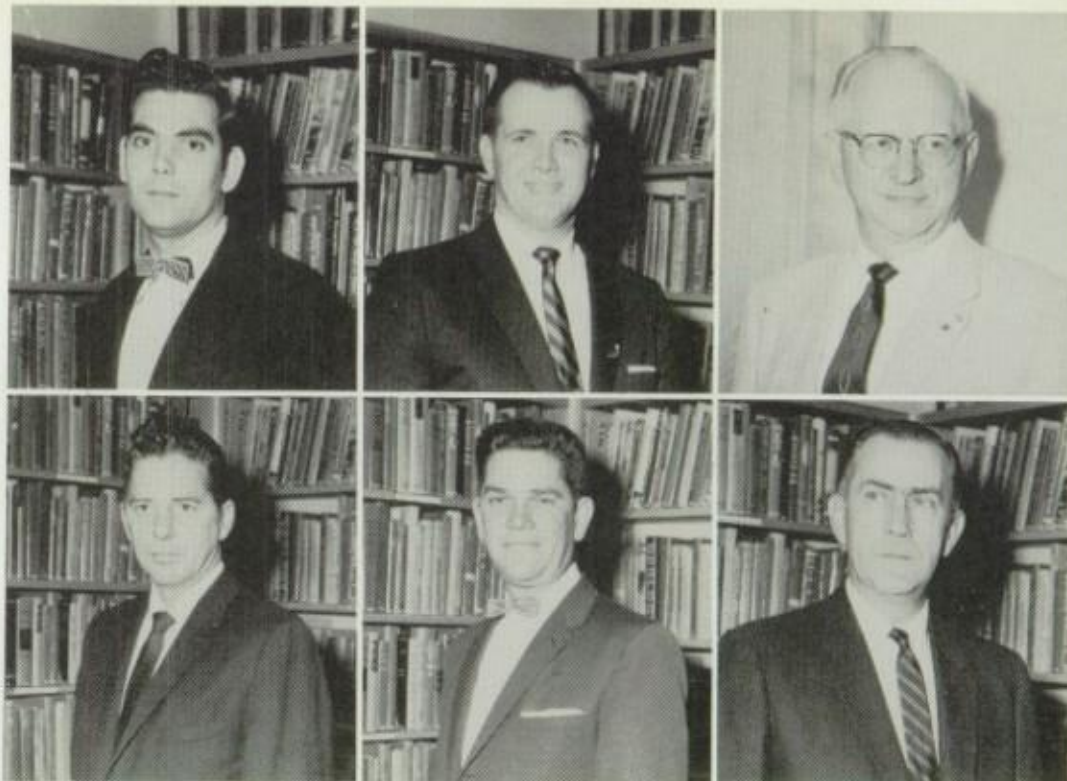

The pained look on Irene Marshman's face isn't real. Amiable Doctor Walichuk, school physician, and Miss Knox, school nurse, are giving Irene her biennial medical examination. Also, should any accident occur during school hours they are available to help.

Faculty

English Department

Under the chairmanship of Mr. Penico, pictured at left, the English department has begun an ambitious program designed to help students improve their reading comprehension and to widen the scope of their experiences through reading material.

With the ever increasing growth in all areas of knowledge ranging from startling discoveries in space to new theories in the social sciences and government, this concern with the reading capabilities of Chichester students is especially appropriate.

Social Studies

Just as important as the statesmen and politicians who make history are the teachers who dispense the knowledge and experience of a thousand years.

Chairman: MR. J. KAZLO

SITTING: Miss Little, Mrs. Geno, Mrs. Frost. STANDING: Mr. Harkins, Mr. Morgan, Mr. Techton.

Mathematics

Logarithms, angles, cosines, interest, lose their mystery under the lucid explanations of our mathematics teachers. In the academic course the theories of mathematics are learned which will help in college; and in the business course vocational math is taught. This math has a practical purpose in everyday life.

Chairman: MRS. E. GENO

Art

The cultural atmosphere of Chichester is provided by the Art Department under the direction of Mrs. Tabutt.

Mrs. Tabbutt encourages and develops hidden artistic talents. She has also had the privilege of seeing many of her students go on to successful art careers.

Core Curriculum

This department instructs classes in seventh and eighth grades. These students remain in one classroom, where one teacher instructs in all subjects. This curriculum enables them to adapt to high school trends. Under the capable direction of Mr. Glick and Mr. McBride, these students have been making their way to a successful high school life.

Chairman: MRS. HARDY

Science Department

Since we have entered the space age, the emphasis has shifted to the sciences. With the facilities available to our students, the science teachers give them a good basic foundation for further study in this field.

Business Education

The Vocational Training given by the Business Department headed by Mrs. Warren, produces many fine and capable secretaries. A few of the best students go out to work on a co-operative plan during the second semester.

Home Economics

The homemakers of tomorrow receive their training in the Home Economics Department, under the direction of Miss Pericles. They learn everything from budgeting their money to child care.

The sounds emanating from room 30 are not the strands of a foreign language broadcast, but Miss Robbins overseeing one of her Spanish classes.

Latin and Spanish

Below is the head of our great books department, school librarian Miss Keller. Cataloguing, classifying and checking out the many books, magazines, and periodicals that pass through our library is a demanding task that she does expertly.

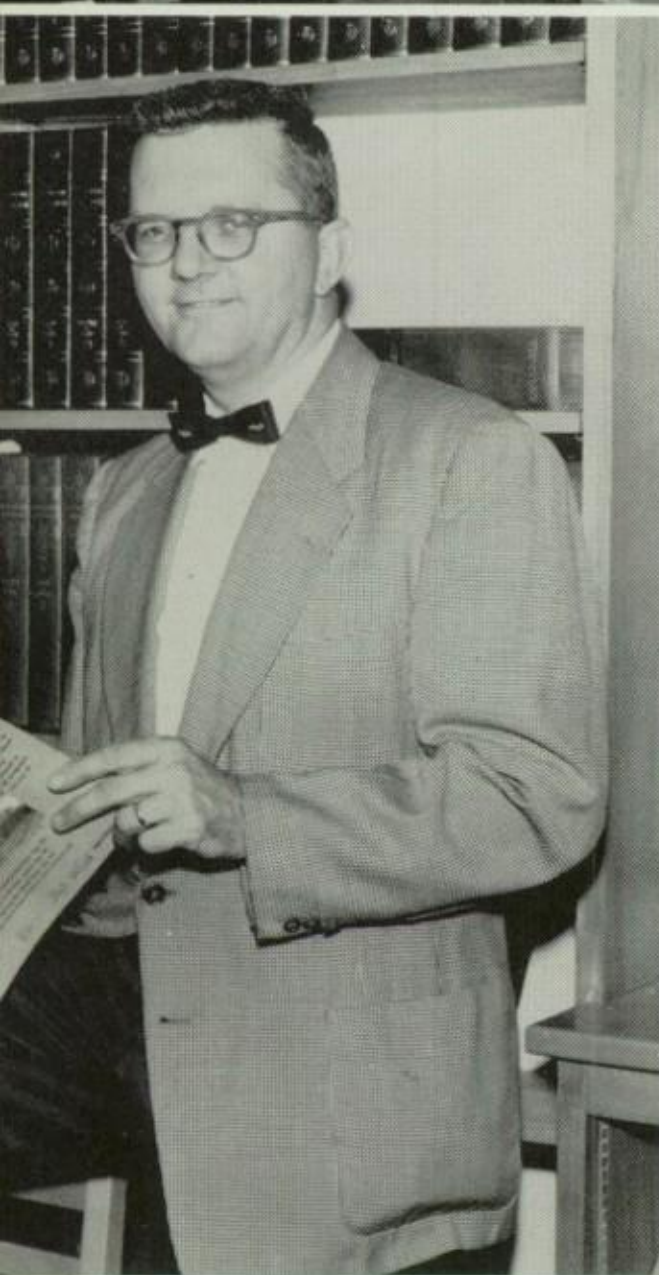

Mrs. Palmer (left), our Latin teacher, appears to discuss with Miss Robbins the possibility of supplementing the teaching of the ancient Latin classics with this modern electronic recording device that has helped make Spanish among the most popular subjects in the curriculum.

Chairman: MR. P. EVERHART

Industrial Arts

Music Department

The fine reputation that our school has enjoyed for many years is due to the tireless efforts of Mrs. Katherine Forwood, who has managed somehow to find a few free moments to go over a score with Mr. Robert Merrell, chorus, choir, and dance band director. These activities are in addition to Mr. Merrell's capacity as music teacher.

Together they represent many singing years to come for all musical productions at Chichester High.

Athletic Department

The President's recommendation for greater physical fitness among American youth has not gone unheeded by the able members of the Athletic Department.

Under the erstwhile tutelage of Mr. Milton Kalickman (pictured at right) the Misses Medd and Dunn and Mr. Nugent, daily strive to do their part in the national endeavor to provide a sound body for a sound mind.

Cafeteria Staff

Miss Pericles, pictured at left, school dietician, with the aid of Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. Pierce, Mrs. Sack, and Mrs. Shuman, above, provide us with nourishing, well balanced lunches.

On Dec. 11, all homerooms may start to put up Christmas decora-

contest sponsored by the Student Council.
All homerooms are permitted to scotch tape, combustible mater-

Masking tape may be used on

Student Council

The student council, under the direction of Mr. Robert Nugent, has endeavored to provide the students with the leadership that is so important for good student government.

Aware also of the great demand for academic excellence among the students at Chi, they have begun to lay plans for including among the school's activities, a debating team. Even more exciting are their efforts and plans to initiate in a few years a foreign exchange program.

Faced with the staggering task of creating a yearbook to be proud of, the staff late in the spring of last year began making its preparations for the months of arduous work ahead. Only with an advisor such as Mr. George Kappes could the many things necessary in compiling a yearbook—writing copy, laying out pictures, selling the books—be done. We hope our book will take its place on your bookshelf, juxtaposed with the great books of all times.

STAFF

Dance Band

Professionally providing us with the undulating strains of a Gershwin melody, the provoking tempo of a Cugat mambo, or the frenzied pace of a Chubby Checker opus—music to fit the taste of all dancing devotees—is the Chichester Dance Band. Under the direction of conductor Mr. Merrell, the group has become one of the most popular ever in the school. Featuring K. Coleman and J. Kelly on the drums, H. Grunwell on the piano, R. Whetstone, J. Koletar, J. Heacok, J. Bowers, J. Gilbert, and W. Stobart on the sax, the band is brought to the acme of perfection by the horns of W. Hodges, L. DiPietro, R. Love, F. Keeley, B. Junto, D. Dunlap, and G. Weidel.

Echo

The stereotyped image of a hard-boiled, cigar smoking, city editor, with an equally gnarled staff of reporters is completely dispelled here at Chichester where a well groomed, diligent staff, headed by Mrs. Susan McCoy (third row, far left standing) toil to bring to the students all the news as it happens.

The National Honor Society

The Chichester Chapter of the National Honor Society, initiated in 1960, is striving to support worthwhile endeavors in the community. The members are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

Future Nurses Club

The Future Nurses Club, also in its second year, has accomplished worthwhile projects for the community. Seven previous members have entered nurses training. President Dolorus Wohnus has set a goal to have more students, both girls and boys, become more interested in such rewarding careers.

Beacons lighting the way to the obscure nooks and crannies of our library are our illustrious aides. FRONT ROW: J. Hartmann, E. Groce, B. Bardsley, Miss Keller, J. Maxwell, J. DiCecco, D. Burdett. BACK ROW: G. Rapposelli, R. DeFrank, J. Bowers, D. Burkins, J. Perry, P. Dodd, B. Carmean, N. Hickey.

Driver's Training

On the highways and byways of the future the really careful drivers will be those who have received their driver's training under the capable instructorship of Mr. Homer Weaver pictured here at the far left kneeling.

When the saints go marching in you can make a sure wager that not a few of that heavenly elect will be made up of seniors, who in '62, raised some of the finest band music ever heard in the environs of Chichester. Standing smartly they are, from LEFT to RIGHT, FIRST ROW: P. Bryant, J. Bowers, C. Downer, N. Walls, L. Pruett, C. Bates. BACK ROW: R. Whetstone, J. Koletar, J. Gilbert, L. DiPietro, A. Weisler, F. Keeley, C. Watmuff.

We, the Senior Class, wish to express our appreciation to Mrs. Forwood and Mr. Sacko for a job well done. We shall always be indebted to them for the help and assistance that they have given us.

Band

Given the incentive provided by past years of accomplishments, many talented students and a directress zealous with desire to improve the band, the 1962 Chichester band could only result in a superior organization. Begun twelve years ago with an assemblage of thirty, the band has swollen into a one hundred and fifty piece marching force, drawing praise from all sides. We wish to extend our congratulations to Mrs. Forwood, our directress, and also to Mr. Robert Nugent for their unceasing contributions which have made our band one of the most outstanding extracurricular activities here at Chi. Although future bands may supercede ours in size, none will be able to match the pride and self-accomplishment the students feel which is the mark of a truly great organization.

Drill Team

The 1961-62 drill team has admirably performed its intricate drills under the capable direction of their sergeant, Mary Ann Snow.

A note of thanks is due Mr. Albert Sacko who, as drill master, has molded the group into a superb unit, capable of executing maneuvers that demand the ultimate in precision and teamwork.

SENIOR COLOR GUARD

Cheer- leaders

The support required to carry our football and basketball teams to victory was earnestly given by our 1961-62 Cheerleaders.

Color Guard

Leading our band, that has won state acclaim for its excellence, is the high-stepping precision color guard commanded by Sandy Weekes. This year we are sorry to be losing five members.

MEMBERS

Majorettes

Our majorettes, consisting of nine girls, three fire twirlers, a head majorette and a head twirler, add color and variety to the band. The 1961-62 majorette corp is one of the youngest with most of the girls in 8, 9, and 10 grades. This year they are losing four seniors, two of whom are our talented and capable leaders, Barbara Lashley, Head Twirler, and Dolores Wohnus, Head Majorette.

We would especially like to salute Dolores Whonus, who has been with the majorettes since sixth grade.

Concert Choir and Chorus

You may not be able to sing along with the Chichester chorus, but it makes mighty fine entertainment, nevertheless, to hear the seventy-five voice group blend in perfect harmony as it runs the complete range of musical composition, from classical to modern.

Mr. Merrell and the chorus have worked hard to attain this level of achievement. To them we extend our heartiest congratulations for their superb choral artistry.

Selecting the "Moses" from this year's group of seniors was a difficult task. The comparisons offered for selection by the senior class in each of the categories were very fine. Living up to preseason predictions, the '62 Eagle Hoopsters soared close to the district 3 championship; the prize was snatched from their talons at the last moment by virtue of a defeat at the hands of a spirited Nether Providence "5." The overall successful season the club enjoyed is a credit to Mr. Dougherty who, with great devotion and dedication built up a well-balanced, highly spirited team. The solid rebounding of R. When not engaged in grabbing rebounds and snuffing in crucial points, Lee Scott and Eddie Osborne sometimes entertain with their own version of the twist.

Taking up a lot of space under the backboards, R. Rinehimer was a stalwart rebounder for this year's club. An illustration of Ron's leaping ability is evident in this picture of his foiling a lay up attempt by N. P.'s DeShields.

Four pointer: on his start to the top Allen Sack completely befuddles a N. P. defender with a driving two pointer. Fouled in the process, Allen, moments later, sank both tries of a one and one situation.

Looking as though they had never seen a basketball before, A. Sack and his N. P. opponent glance quizzically at the caroming sphere.

Representing the distaff side of the Chichester basketball family is a group of young ladies who, though lacking the size and strength of their male counterparts, provided thrills and excitement aplenty for their loyal followers. The skillful play and team work that characterized the club is a tribute to their fine coach Miss Geneva Dunn. Captained by Dale Hubler and Sandy (Hooks) Weekes, the club scored notable victories over Chester, Sun Valley and Nether Providence, not to mention the inevitable and whopping victory over the faculty.

Cheerleaders

The Fighting Fledglings: the stars of tomorrow are the Junior High Spartans of today. Under the leadership of Mr.

Kazlo and assistant coach Mr. Lober, our future stars have progressed credibly along the road to perfecting their football skills.

With the eager enthusiasm of the Junior High Cheerleaders (pictured above) exploding into shouts of encouragement and support to aid them along, we anxiously await the fulfillment of their widely acclaimed skills.

Football

Look Forward, Angel!

The Chichester Chapter of the National Guardian Angels Society held its monthly business meeting. The purpose of this meeting was to check on the progress of the class of 1962. After attending a 10 year reunion the Chief Guardian Angel of the class made the following report:

"I arrived at the Broadway Hotel, owned by Bob Sweigart, one of the ten richest men in the U. S., just in time to see Ed. Heckman going off bellhop duty to attend the reunion. It was held in the Flamingo Room, designed by Richard Morgan, and Eileen Jackson certainly outdid herself when she took over the job of redecorating the entire hotel.

As I settled down on the chandelier, I noticed that the musicians started to arrive. There was band leader Larry DiPietro. With him were Francis Keeley, Bob Whetstone, Lonnie Harris, and Bucky Junto. Some of their most popular selections have been composed by Kenny Coleman. Joe Koletar left this group a few years ago to become the U. S. ambassador to the U. N., where Bill Tyson has been doing well as a Spanish interpreter.

During the evening I picked up bits of information as the different alumni greeted each other. Bob Thomson, Dennis Robinson, Barry Nelson, and Dennis Price have been working out on Ray Ferry's drag strip for the stock car race next month. Ray Tyson, Eric Gould, Bob Straight, and John Moore are traveling with them as their mechanics. Stanley Watson and Dom Saporosa are announcing this race for TV viewers.

Charles Watmuff and Willis Walker have just come back from South America where they have been doing missionary work. Beverly Sanderlin is now in a small African village teaching homemaking. Pam Bryant, Dolores Wohnus, and Elaine Frazier have been traveling abroad as Air Force nurses.

Quite a few of the class have turned to the entertainment world. Barbara Wanner, Andrea Conte, Sandy Brown, and Janet Bowers are members of the Radio City Music Hall Rockettes. Jennester Bannister and Glenis Gaster are on the makeup department at Warner Bros., where Jerie Chandler and Jack Cassidy are starring in millionaire producer George Racine's latest venture. Bill Sherman just won his first Academy Award for best actor. In the television world, Frank Lupoli is doing tooth paste commercials. Nina Walls, Lois Pruett, Mary Ann Snow, and Jane DeShullo are now appearing in various Broadway plays.

Jimmie Marshall was just appointed head of pediatrics at General Hospital by Larry Whittaker. The hospital's mistakes go to Dot Tonge, who is now in the undertaking business. Dr. Lew Byrne recently operated on Jim Mullins for a chronic ulcer ailment. Nurses Shirley Balay and Jeannette Wintczak were constantly at his side. Dale Hubler took care of his X-rays and Pat Kell took a blood sample for Mary Lou Koch to analyze. The report was given to Rose Ann DeFrank to type up.

Somebody just reported that Phyllis Brown just plowed her Thunderbird into Wanza Rowlyck's '58 Chevy, but patrolman Eugene Scurti has the situation well in hand.

Presidential candidate Fran Wiechechi and vice-presidential candidate Allen Weisler have been campaigning in Alaska. Archie Williams and Joe Izzo, their aides, made arrangements with Alaska's governor Tom Russo to set up headquarters in Juneau. John Posey, Bob Ricci, and Danny Hefton postponed their mountain climbing expedition to hear the campaign speech written by Bill Monaco. On the opposing ticket Betty Ann Grear and Betty Jane Elliot are the presidential and vice-presidential candidates. Barbara Lashley, Barbara Stipe, and Rosalie Tutlo have been helping with the campaign.

No one can seem to drag Helen Elliot from her villa on the Riviera. Ron Rinehimer dropped a bundle at Monte Carlo in Jack Kelly's club. Hilda Davis and Earnestine Carroll are living on a yacht off the Riviera coast.

Billy Allen, Charles Clements, Spencer Tillery, Louie Peticca, Ed Osborne, and Doug Clements will be playing in the all-star football game next week. In the Army-Navy game John Slawter, John Yohe, and Charles Megonigal will be playing for Navy and Bill Steinmacher, Dennis Garehan, and Charles White are playing for Army.

Jesse Posey and Ronnie Thomas have gone into joint ownership of a real estate agency with Norman McNeil as Manager.

Up in the wild blue yonder, Frank DiBenedetto, Ed Talley, and David Andrew are pilots with TWA. Bundie Laffey, Betty Stevenson, and Sharon Smith are stewardesses with this airline.

The Ice Follies just finished a successful season with headliners Margie Beauchamp, Sandy Ferguson, Bonnie Allen, Bonnie Grace, Curtie McMullen, Cindy Bates, Ben Jones, and John Powell.

Recently Peggy Dempsey was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize. Prizes were awarded to Joyce Perry for chemistry and Cherie Jardine for physics. Another surprise was Penny Dodd being awarded the Pulitzer Prize for literature.

The National Secretaries Convention was well attended by our alumnae, Betty Smiggil, Joyce Bailey, Dolores Tully, Mary Whitby, Barbara Demko, Alice Cheyney, Elaine Killian, Barbara Fuller, Sheila Litteral, Carol Drulik, and Judy Bartholomew. Charlotte Downer was spokesman for the group.

At a recent teachers' convention Sandy Weekes, Ruth Gensel, Ethel Field, Jim Gilbert and Tom Davies were praised for their outstanding work.

John Cheyney, Eddie Piccara, Eric Fuller, and James Hobbs have been world travelers since they've been working on the boats.

Larry Holden and Jim Nichols, co-directors at the New York Art Museum have given Don Davidson $2,500,000 for his latest masterpiece entitled "Midnight in the Bronx."

I will conclude my report by saying that the class of 1962 is very prosperous and happy.

Respectfully submitted,
Chief Guardian Angel
